

5th Annual WATW Retreat

To all church women (and women friends): Women at the Well invites you to our 5th annual retreat this year on March 26-27, 2010! Though we are a little sad that our previous venue (Rockcraft in ME) has closed, we are quite happy about the new space we have found; our own UCC retreat center in Framingham! And we are confident you will be as well.

This is a time for exploration of faith and your relationship with God, time for sharing with other women, time to reflect, to read, to pray. You need not have attended one of these retreats before; you need not have even attended one of our monthly meetings. You're not a "retreat" kind of person? Have you ever asked past attendees what it's really like? We each have reasons why this invitation may not feel comfortable; but we urge you to give it a try! Stretch! Explore! Give this gift to yourself! Please consider this to be your year.

The cost will be $75 and will run from late Friday afternoon and end mid Saturday afternoon. Lodging, Friday dinner and Saturday breakfast and lunch are included as well as any material costs. We will carpool from MSCC Friday afternoon. Perhaps you'd like to invite a friend. Sign-up sheets are available at our February WATW meeting as well as at our WATW information board in the vestry (on the wall opposite the coffee station). Last day to accept a registration will be March 10 – no exceptions! Please speak with Carmen Weisensee, Jane Church, Barb Bode or Nancy Frick for any further questions. We look forward to seeing you there!
